For 29 years, California Mobilehome Parkowners Alliance (CMPA) has been the eyes and ears of the industry in Sacramento. CMPA has always been a bold leader in the fight against rent control, at the ballot box and in promoting and sponsoring positive legislation and defeating bills that are detrimental for mobilehome park owners. CMPA's keen attention to packing in the most valuable information possible into a high profile gathering of California community owners is what brings Symposium attendees back year after year.
